

Priority Setting in Research for Health: A Management Process for Countries

Which method, which approach?

What is the optimal way for countries to set their national research for health priorities? How do countries improve the management of priority setting so that it evolves with the reality of a country's research environment? This resource area provides examples, tools and expertise for countries to design a priority setting approach that suits their needs.

- COHRED's expertise
Over the past 15 years COHRED has supported the countries listed below* in setting...
- Setting priorities, managing performance
This approach encourages countries to assess their needs and design a process that is...
- COHRED approach to Priority Setting
A six-steps process to priority setting in research for...

- Countries' priorities
- Recommended reading
- Priority setting tools